Editor's Message

On behalf of the editorial team of the Journal of Interdisciplinary Studies in Education, I would like to thank our readers, authors, and reviewers. My sincere gratitude goes to all reviewers, who provided valuable feedback to authors and made producing the current issue of JISE possible. JISE is aimed at those in the academic world who are dedicated to advancing the field of education through their research. JISE provides a range of articles that speak to the major issues in education across all content areas and disciplines. The journal is peer edited through a blind review process that utilizes national and international editorial boards and peer reviewers.

Among the topics that the Journal focuses on are:

- Educational Leadership and Culture of the Academy
- Intercultural communication, intercultural relations, student involvement
- Globalization, internationalization, cultural influences
- Internationalization of teaching, learning and research
- Multiculturalism, diversity, and individualism
